About the Journal

The International Journal of Linguistics, Literature and Culture (LLC) is a double-blind peer reviewed journal that accepts high quality research articles. LLC is published two times per year and is available to all researchers who are interested in publishing their academic research and scientific achievements. The journal welcomes submissions focusing on theories, methods, and applications in Linguistics, Literature, and Culture.

In the past few years, academicians from over 40 countries around the globe have published their papers in the International Journal of Linguistics, Literature and Culture. Authors are eligible to publish their articles after peer-review has been carried out by our editorial board members and reviewers. The mission of LLC is to provide greater and faster flow of the newest scientific thought by serving as a bridge between researchers and their theories around the world. LLC is open to all researchers, regardless of their geographical origin, race, nationality, religion, or gender, as long as they have an adequate scientific paper in the field of Linguistics, Literature, and Culture.

LLC fully supports open access and open science concept. The full content of the papers is available on LLC website and is free for usage.
